Zachary Jewell

Web and graphic designer thriving in dynamic, fast-paced environments, with strong experience working on teams as well as independently. My projects range from simple print pieces to complex responsive websites. I am passionate about the multi-device web and its future. I love talking about good design and best practices while making things and helping others. I am a self-starter who is always looking for ways to grow and challenge my skills.

Experience

Design Mentor

Bloc

June 2017 - present

I work with Bloc to teach, manage and instruct students on UI/UX Design and Front-end Development. While working here I have also helped with platform updates (Product and Curriculum). I work with other mentors and students to show and teach how design and development work together while also presenting best practices in design, usability and accessibility.

Principal

Zack Jewell Design

2007 - present

Freelance web and graphic design for a variety of clients, from creative entrepreneurs to small non-profits and large institutions. Projects include creating websites, updating established sites to keep them fresh and contemporary, developing content strategies, designing ads, sliders, templates and logos and producing photography and short videos.

Web Designer and Front-End Developer

The Laidlaw Group, LLC

2015 - 2016

Lead website design and development, specializing in responsive design, working with clients ranging from a water taxi service to an architectural shelving company. Team leadership includes implementing best practices, managing interns and junior staff, improving design and development workflows and streamlining communications.

Interactive Designer

*Wild Honey Social Media/
Bespoke House, Boston, MA*

2013 - 2014

Designed and developed projects for residential-resort communities, real estate developers and boutique hotels, including desktop, mobile-only and responsive websites, ads (interactive and print) and email newsletters. Worked on teams on tight deadlines to solve design and development problems in a small, fast-paced marketing company.
